

GREATER DERRY MRC
Serving Southeastern New Hampshire

2006 National
Unit Spotlight
Award Winner

MRC units are community-based and function as a way to locally organize and utilize volunteers - medical professionals and others - who want to donate their time and expertise to promote healthy living throughout the year and to prepare for and respond to emergencies.

MRC volunteers supplement existing local emergency and public health resources.

“The Medical Reserve Corps is one way that health professionals can volunteer during large-scale emergencies, such as an influenza epidemic, a chemical spill, or an act of terrorism. MRC volunteers also work to improve the overall health and well-being of their neighborhoods and communities.”

Tommy G. Thompson
Former Secretary
U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services
